THE CRISIS IN RUSSIA.

A Seditious Document Against the Ruling Dynasty.

THE CZAR'S CONDITION CRITICAL

Further Reports That the Russian Ruler Is Beyond All Hope—Grand Duke George Formally Renounces His Succession to the Throne

LONDON, Oct 25.—A dispatch from St Petersburg says that among the various reports in circulation there is one to the effect that Professor Bergmann, the well known German physician has been summoned with a view to the possibility of an operation if it be found that only one of his majesty's kidneys is affected.

The dispatch adds that detailed accounts are given of the will of the czar, but that nothing authentic can possibly be known beyond the official bulletins. Even the ministers and ambassadors receive no other information than is contained in the bulletins. It is true, however, that since the 15th of the present month all the state papers have been signed by the czarowitz by the czar's order.

The minister of finance has telegraphed to the president of the Odessa exchange begging him to call the bankers and representatives of financial firms together and appeal to them for the abstention, under the sad circumstances, from all speculation, and especially the purchase of gold and also to do their utmost to prevent the depreciation of the rouble and state funds

The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily News says that the official bulletins do not represent the gravity of the czar's condition. Temporary relief by tapping, he adds, means nothing. It is the general opinion that his majesty is already dying. It is known that his unconsciousness lasted several hours. It is not known whether the wedding of the czarowitz and Princess Alix occurred yesterday or not. This silence is ominous. It may be that the surgical operation has delayed the ceremony. Persistent rumors are in circulation of mournful sick bed scenes and other touching incidents.

Advices received in Berlin are to the effect that the condition of the czar has become much worse. The death of Grand Duke George, the second son of the czar, who was not long since recalled to St. Petersburg from Abbastuman in the Caucasus, where he was sojourning for his health, is, according to the Gazette, a question of a few days.

Princess Alix, it is said, is still waging a desperate struggle against the fanatical Orthodox clergy, who insist upon her declaring that the Evangelical faith is accursed. The princess cannot be persuaded that the matter is a mere formality, and demands that she may be excused from pronouncing the words in question. The correctness of these rumors cannot be vouched for, and the fact is only mentioned that they are in circulation and are receiving fresh nourishment from the absence of news about the wedding. However, as news from Livadia generally takes considerable time in coming, news of the marriage may still be expected.

The servants who accompanied Princess Alix to Warsaw, where she met her sister, Grand Duchess Sergius, have returned to the Hessian capital. At Warsaw there were a number of Russian servants who entered upon their duties as soon as the princess arrived. It was evidently not wished that the Germans should go to Livadia and bring back with them a knowledge of the state of affairs at the Russian court.

A seditious proclamation or appeal to the people is circulating secretly through the post here. The origin of the proclamation is unknown, but it is evident that the authors have taken advantage of the exceptional circumstances that now prevail. The document is dated Feb. 19, the anniversary of the emancipation of the serfs, and is signed "The Party of Russian Rights." It demands that the rights that a despotic government has withdrawn be restored. Nothing is said in the proclamation about the illness of the czar, but the present moment is referred to as propitious for securing liberty of the press and conscience. An election, etc., is demanded. No importance is attached to the appeal.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Berlin Vossische Zeitung, predicts trouble over the ascension to the throne. He says: "The superstition following the death of Nicholas I, that no other Nicholas would be enthroned, survives. Fear of a renewal of the condition of affairs under the first Nicholas is deep rooted. The feeling prevailing among the lower classes proves that they do not regard the czarowitz as heir by the grace of God. Moreover, their views on autocracy have greatly changed."

It Cured Mother and Daughter.

BETHANY, N. Y., June 3, 1885.—"Since my wife commenced the use of Gilmore's wine she has steadily improved, until now her health is restored. She says she cannot keep house without this wine. It also cured my daughter, who was troubled with suppression of the menses. She had run over ten weeks and took only one bottle before she was cured."—Philip G. Burke. All druggists sell Gilmore's Aromatic Wine at $1 per bottle.

Great Triumph.

Instant relief experienced and a permanent cure by the most speedy and greatest in the world—Otto's Cure for Lung and Throat disease s Why will you continue to irritate your throat and lungs with that terrible hacking caugh when John J. Chambers, 21 West Main Street, opp. Runyon's grocery, sole agent, will furnish you a free sample bottle of this great guarantee r medy? Its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Otto's is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Sample free. Large bottles 50c and 25c.

THE WAR AGAINST CHINA.

Chinese Vessels Destroyed by Submarine Mines—Persecutions of Christians.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 25.—The steamship Empress of Japan brings the following advices from the orient: The Chinese loss in the battle of Yakushan was: Killed, 700; wounded, 252. Two different accounts are published in Yokohama papers with reference to the Chinese troops having erected six forts on the southern bank of the river and fourteen on the northern. They have about eighty guns in position, and the force assembled is about 70,000. All the troops that escaped from Ping Yang are on the northern bank. Other reports say that the Chinese forces only number 9,000 on the northern bank and a similar number on the southern, and that but eight forts are built so far, but that on the appearance of the Japanese troops they hastily strengthened their position.

Navigation in the Shihtousha channel is now very dangerous. 600 submarine mines having been laid. A large junk struck a torpedo recently, and both it and a fishing boat were blown up and the crews destroyed. A Chinese gunboat was also destroyed in the same manner.

Hospital arrangements at Hiroshima are very extensive and complete, and the wounded Chinese prisoners are treated with the same care as Japanese. So much so that many Chinese patients are reluctant to leave the hospital and manifest very little patriotic feeling, their chief concern being their arrears of pay.

Fierce persecutions have broken out in the two southern provinces of Corea against the native Christians. Already a large number of native converts have been murdered and many robbed and beaten. Pere Jozeau, a French missionary, was captured by General Yeh while on the way to Seoul. He and an attendant were interrogated and beaten by soldiers in the presence of General Yeh.

RUN DOWN AT SEA.

The American Liner Paris Sinks an Unknown Ship.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 25.—Between 1:30 and 2 o'clock Tuesday morning the American line steamer Paris, Captain Watkins, which arrived here last night from New York, ran down and probably sank an unknown ship. The weather was very thick at the time, a heavy rain falling. As soon as the collision occurred the Paris was put about and a search made for the ship. After a time the vessel or a capsized wreck was reported off the starboard bow, but sight of it was lost before a life boat could be lowered. Nothing further was seen, though the Paris laid off and searched until daylight. The steamer sustained no damage beyond having a portion of her rail bent and two wirestays broken. Sailors on the Paris say the sailing vessel showed signals of distress after the collision, and that screams were heard aboard of her.

It is stated that a white light was seen on board the ship three minutes before the collision, but that no red or green light was visible until after the steamer had struck her. Captain Watkins declines to make any statement regarding the accident, except to the company officials.

Passengers on the Paris criticise the delay on the steamer in lowering a boat and in getting the search light working.

A Plague of Diphtheria.

STURGIS, Ky., Oct 25.—A fearful and death dealing plague of diphtheria is raging opposite Caseyville, Ills, and coffins can hardly be furnished fast enough with which to bury the dead. Not fewer than forty deaths have occurred within the week. It is not uncommon to bury two children in a single coffin. A man from across the river arrived at Caseyville yesterday for the fifth coffin, furnished in one family. The plague has now crossed the Ohio, and is epidemic at Caseyville and Mulfordtown, having been brought there by families from Illinois, fleeing from the ravages. A number of dangerous cases are developing there, and all the schools have closed. The community is in a general state of alarm. Among the few recoveries noted the victims have been left blind or paralyzed.

Married a Russian Prince.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The marriage of Miss Susan Tucker Whittier, daughter of General Charles A. Whittier, of Boston, Mass., to Prince Belloselsky-Bellozersky, son of the czar's aide-de-camp, took place yesterday afternoon in the Russian church on the Rue Daru. A second religious ceremony of marriage afterwards took place in the American church on the Avenue de Alma. Both ceremonies were attended by the elite of the American and Russian colonies. Later Prince and Princess Belloselsky-Bellozersky started on their honeymoon. They will reside in Russia.

Searcey Taken to Fredericksburg.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Oct. 25.—Charles J. Searcey, in charge of Robert Pinkerton, reached here yesterday afternoon. Searcey was cheerful and seemed relieved that the thing was over. He was lodged in jail. Judge Ashton, of the county court of Stafford county, has issued an order adopting the jail of Fredericksburg as the place of confinement for Searcey, and there he will stay until Nov. 21, at which time the county court of Stafford will sit and the grand jury find indictments against the train robbers.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was taken down with pneumonia, succeeding la grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store. Regular size 50c, and $1.00.

PULLMAN VS. GIBBONS.

The Corporation Applies for a Change of Venue

IN THE SUIT TO ANNUL CHARTER.

The Company Claims That Judge Gibbons Is Prejudiced Against the Corporation, and Quotes from a Literary Production of the Jurist to Prove It.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The Pullman company applied for a change of venue from Judge Gibbons on the quo warranto case brought by Attorney General Moloney. The ground alleged for a change was prejudice on the part of the court. The defendants state that Judge Gibbons has written a book on the ownership of land by corporations, and that his views as set forth therein would make an impartial hearing impossible.

The application for a change was resisted by Attorney General Moloney and a long argument from both sides followed. The court announced that he would reserve his decision, and arguments are being continued today.

The book written by Judge Gibbons which is the cause of all the argument, was published in 1888, before he was on the bench, and is entitled "Tenure and Toil." A number of references are made in it in regard to Pullman, and the following quotation is the one on which the Pullman company bases its application:

"The idea of home—that idea, the incarnation of which in man's life is essential to his true development and happiness—finds no association with the name of Pullman. The people dwell in houses not their own, and their tenure is subject to termination at ten days' notice, a condition embodied in the lease, the corporation reserving the right to cancel that lease, even though the rent may have been paid in advance for a longer period than the time of notice stipulated. Is not this in contravention of the law fixing and maintaining the relative rights of landlord and tenant? The rent may be paid in the forenoon of the first day of the month; in the afternoon the decree is promulgated that notices be issued to the tenants to vacate in ten days.

"Such an absolute extinction of individuality and such an utter absorption of that individuality by a capitalistic organization is without approach or parallel in the history of any other modern civilized community. In many respects the power of the Russian czar pales into utter insignificance in comparison with the power of the close corporation which rules Pullman. Can it be said that that power is always rightfully exercised? Within the limits of this ideal (?) social and industrial realm escape from the all-pervading influence of the corporation is impossible.

"Many grievances exist, many acts of injustice occur, but no one dare utter a cry for help or redress. The laborers at Pullman believe that "spotters"—paid eavesdroppers of the company—mingle with them to catch and report to their masters any sign or word, expression of disapproval or criticism of the actions of the authorities.

"Pullman is the only community of 10,000 people in the United States that has not a newspaper published within its limits. The freedom of the press here would be limited to the promulgation and approval of the decrees and dogmas of the powers that be.

"What a spectacle. Ten thousand people in utter subjection to the avaricious and limitless power of a dozen men organized and co operating together as one man, who owns a pseudo city, exempt from municipal burdens and responsibilities. Not a single man of all that ten thousand dare express an opinion about the affairs of the community in which he dwells. These conditions of existence beget a civility little less than slavish, a dependence that is moral weakness and mental degradation.

"There is a lack of attention in the meagre provisions for religious instruction. The seating capacity of the halls is insufficient for the accommodation of the people, and the rental demanded is so high that it is with great difficulty any religious denomination can pay it. The company, with an eye single to its own selfish purpose, provides shelter and meat for the body, but maketh no provision for manna for the soul. The soul cannot forge a bolt or line a boiler."

A Baby's Life Saved.

WALTON, N. Y., April 14, 1894.—When my baby was six months old she was taken very badly with diarrhœa. A doctor came every day for a week. Baby got worse, until she could notice nothing at all. I got so worried I called on our druggists and he recommended Dr. Hand's Diarrhœa Mixture. I got it and just one-half a bottle cured my baby and saved her life.

W. F. O'NEILL, ESQ., OF THIS CITY,

Will Also Address the Meeting.

THE GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Increased Strength of the Populists Makes a Democratic Caucus Necessary.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 25.—The general assembly of Georgia convened yesterday. Hon. W. H. Venable, of Atlanta, was elected president of the senate, and Hon. W. H. Fleming, of Augusta, was elected speaker of the house. There are seven Populists, one Republican and thirty-six Democrats in the senate, and of the total membership of 175 in the house, forty-six are Populists, the remainder being Democrats. This is the first time in twenty years when there has been any party caucus in the organization of the legislature of Georgia, but the increasing strength of the Populists rendered it desirable to the Democratic leaders.

The first work of the general assembly will be the election of judges and solicitors after which it will take up the important work of electing two United States senators. Hon. Patrick Walsh has no opposition for election to fill the unexpired term which he is now serving, but for the long term there are four candidates, Hon. A. O Bacon, Hon. Patrick Walsh, Congressman H. C. Turner and Hon. L. F. Garrard This will be decided by caucus nomination, and the estimated strength of the four candidates gives Bacon 78, Turner 50, Garrard 22 and Walsh 16.

It takes eighty-four votes to nominate in caucus. The Bacon men claim more than enough to nominate, though the others deny this. The first ballot in both houses does not take place until Nov. 6, but the caucus will occur in the meantime.

Strikers' Injunction Overruled.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25.—Judge Phillips overruled the demurrer in the famous strike injunction suit of the United States against M. J. Elliott and over a hundred members of the A. R. U. The government filed a bill asking for an order to restrain the defendants from interfering with the mails or interstate commerce. A temporary order was granted and the defendants filed a demurrer, alleging want of jurisdiction. Judge Phillips held that congress had the right to regulate interstate commerce, that it had passed a law in accordance with that right, and that United States District Attorney Clopton had observed the letter of that law.

An Eminent English Clergyman Arrives

NEW YORK, Oct 25.—The Very Rev Samuel Reynolds Hole, D. D., dean of Rochester cathedral, England, arrived yesterday by the steamer Majestic. The witty dean of Rochester is one of the most powerful and popular preachers in England. He was the intimate friend of Thackery Dickens, Tennyson and Leech and comes to this country on a lecturing tour. The proceeds from the lecture tour of Dear Hole will go to raise funds toward rebuilding the central tower of Rochester cathedral as a memorial to Charles Dickens

KEPT THE WITNESS AWAY.

Sensational Charge Against New York Police by Lawyer Goff.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—It had been expected that one of the police commissioners would have been put on the stand in yesterday's session of the Lexow committee, and the committee room was packed with an expectant crowd of people. Hardly had the committee taken their places when Lawyer Goff came into the room in a high state of excitement. He addressed himself at once to Chairman Lexow, stating that he was compelled to ask for an adjournment. Mr. Goff announced that one of the most important witnesses yet before the committee, who was expected here from Chicago, had been detained in Jersey City, evidently the victim of a police conspiracy to keep her from giving evidence before the committee.

The witness is known as Mrs. Matilda Hermann, who mysteriously disappeared with her husband some three or four weeks ago, when it was found the investigating committee had issued a subpœna for her appearance. With great difficulty the woman had been traced to Chicago, and after much effort was convinced that it was to her interest to return and testify. Mr. Goff announced that the police of this city had a hand in spiriting her away.

It was also learned that the woman's trunk had been taken and carried away, with valuable documents which would have a strong bearing on the evidence. It was learned that to prevent the woman's disappearance Mr. Moss had gone to Jersey City and made a charge of perjury against Mrs. Hermann and secured her commitment to the jail until extradition papers could be secured. The charge made by the Jersey City police against Mrs. Hermann was that of kidnaping.

Cyclist Johnson's Marvelous Mile.

BUFFALO, Oct. 25.—If Tom Eck and a select party of bicyclists who were out on the Tonawanda boulevard yesterday are to be believed John S. Johnson, the racing man, went a mile straightaway, paced by a quarupler, in the marvelous time of 1.35 1-5. Eck brought Johnson here to try for the mile straightaway over this pavement, which is as smooth as a parlor floor. The course is straight and has been carefully measured, but there is a steep fall for an eighth of a mile at the finish. The time by quarters was: First quarter, 21 2-5; second quarter, 25 2-5; third quarter, 25; fourth quarter, 24. Electric timers were used, and it is claimed there can be no mistake.

A Horrible Find by Whalers.

DUNDEE, Oct. 25.—Whaling vessels belonging to the Dundee fleet which have returned bring a gruesome story from the far north. They steamed into Elvin bay, and a party from the Balaena landed and proceeded in shore. They had not gone far when they came upon a ghastly ring of corpses, the remains of Esquimaux who had evidently died of starvation. The evidence pointed to its having been a case of the survival of the fittest. One by one they had succumbed to the pangs of hunger, and finally the stronger, in a futile attempt to save their own lives, were driven to eat the other. The crew of the Balaena brought a number of relics of their ghastly find.

POLITICS IN NEW YORK.

Both Cleveland and Harrison in the Metropolis.

THE EX-PRESIDENT WILL SPEAK.

In Response to the Request of Ex-Vice President Morton General Harrison Agrees to Address a Meeting in the Metropolis Within a Week.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—President Cleveland and ex-President Harrison both arrived in this city yesterday. The former was accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and E. C. Benedict, at whose residence in Greenwich the presidential family spent Tuesday night, Mrs. and Miss Benedict. The party was driven to the house of Dr. Bryant, the president's physician. Ex-President Harrison went to the Fifth Avenue hotel, where a vast throng of Republican politicians were awaiting his arrival. Soon after reaching the hotel Hon. L. P. Morton, the Republican nominee for governor, called, and their interview, it is said, resulted in an agreement on the part of the ex-president to make one or more speeches before his return. Subsequently it was announced that Mr. Harrison agreed to make a speech in this city for the state ticket. The date of his speech has not yet been decided upon, though it will be delivered within a week. Mr. Harrison will confine himself entirely to a discussion of national issues, as he does not deem it wise to meddle with the situation in this state.

At Republican headquarters it was announced that there had been no developments to disturb conditions that have existed for several days past. The work of the campaign is being proceeded with, and the nearest approach to a side issue was a report from Rochester that Hon. O. F. Williams, who was nominated by petition for congress on the independent Republican ticket, had withdrawn at the request of the Republican state committee, as it was feared his candidacy would endanger the head of the state ticket.

The Democratic managers spent the day in a further effort to bring about harmony of action between the opposing Democratic factions in this city and Brooklyn, but in New York, it was said at the Democratic headquarters last evening, the prospect of reaching an agreement in this city was not bright.

Despite the efforts of Senator Hill, Lieutenant Governor Sheehan and Senator Faulkner to secure the concessions from Tammany demanded by ex-Mayor Grace, it was said that the Tammany candidates who were asked to withdraw refused to do so. Walsh, Banter and McClellan declined, so it is stated, to step out, but Congressman Cummings authorized the statement that both he and General Sickle would obey orders.

Mr. Croker is quoted at headquarters as saying that Tammany had already conceded enough when it allowed Senator Hill's name to head the Grace ticket, headed by Strong, a Republican, for mayor. At headquarters it was also said that the indications were that the combination could not be made, although hope was expressed that it might be.

Senator Faulkner succeeded in bringing together Chairman Bell, of the Kings county regular Democracy, and Edward H. Sheppard, the leader of the reform movement. Many conferences took place Mr. Shepard making his demands in writing, but in this case also Lawrence Gardner, the secretary of the League of Democratic clubs, who is aiding Senator Faulkner, said no definite results had been obtained. He said, too, that the prospects for harmony were brighter in Brooklyn than in New York. The conferences are still proceeding in the former city, and there may be a result in five minutes or five hours.

In the course of the afternoon Senator Faulkner had an interview with President Cleveland, but declined to state its nature. It was said, however, that they discussed the congressional situation, and that Senator Faulkner importuned the president to give expression to an utterance on the subject of the New York campaign.

Accompanied by the Bryant family the president occupied a box at the Broadway theater last night.

PICTURE THIEVES.

A DEALER WHO SAYS THERE ARE ARTISTIC KLEPTOMANIACS.

Theft of a Murillo and of Gainsborough's "Duchess of Devonshire"—Story of a Kiss Given For a Vote—Sharpers and Counterfeit Etchings.

"Did you ever hear of the artistic kleptomaniac?" asked a well known dealer in etchings during an after luncheon harmony a few days ago. "Well, there is such a person. The artistic kleptomaniac is insanely fond of valuable art in the form of etchings or paintings. He steals through the admiration and love of art. There are many famous instances where old and almost priceless masterpieces of the painter's art have been taken by persons of this kind, and it is odd that in almost every instance the stolen pieces of art could not be traced.

"The most famous artistic theft of modern days was the stealing of the figure of St. Anthony from the celebrated picture by Murillo. The painting, which was on exhibition in the cathedral at Seville, represented St. Anthony surrounded by angels. One morning about seven years ago it was discovered that the figure of St. Anthony had been cut from the canvas.

"All Europe was notified of the theft, but the police never found the thief. About two years afterward a Spaniard from the West Indies called in at the establishment of Mr. Schaus, the well known picture dealer of this city. The Spaniard told Mr. Schaus that he would like to sell him an unsigned painting by Murillo. Mr. Schaus, being a man of large intelligence regarding works of the masters, recognized immediately the figure of St. Anthony cut from the painting in the cathedral at Seville.

"The man was seized, and Mr. Schaus had the honor of returning the painting to Spain.

"The theft of the celebrated portrait of the Duchess of Devonshire, by Gainsborough, 15 years ago was doubtless the work of an artistic kleptomaniac, for the picture can do the thief no good but excite his admiration. The portrait was in the possession of the Messrs. Agnew, the picture dealers of London. It had been on exhibition, and the Agnew galleries had been crowded. One morning the frame stood empty. The painting had been cut out, and no one knows to this day where Gainsborough's Duchess of Devonshire is.

"Some dishonest lover of art is gloating over the picture in private. The portrait is valued at $50,000.

"That painting by Gainsborough, besides being an artistic relic, is also historic, as the painting was made just when the beautiful Duchess of Devonshire had been the means of turning the political tide of England. Pitt and Fox were rival candidates for parliament. It was demonstrated that the election would be narrowed down to the vote of an elderly fat butcher. The butcher intended to vote for Pitt. The Duke of Devonshire tried every means, including a bribe, to influence the fat butcher to vote for Fox, but the butcher was obdurate. Then the beautiful duchess said to him:

"'Is there anything I can do for you if you will vote for Fox?'

"'Yes,' answered the butcher. 'If you will kiss me, I will vote for Fox.'

"The duchess kissed the fat butcher. Fox was elected, and the political complexion of England was changed. It is related that the Duchess of Devonshire told the story to Gainsborough when she was posing for her picture.

The collector of valuable etchings or engravings must be as constantly on the alert for counterfeits as is the bank cashier for forged checks or counterfeit bills or the jeweler for false diamonds. Some dealers have suffered heavy losses because of their inability to distinguish between an original and a counterfeit etching or engraving. Quick wit and a wide knowledge of the history of etchings recently saved Frederick Keppel, the art dealer of this city and Paris, nearly 1,000 marks in Berlin. The collection of etchings of the late Baron Opperman was sold at auction, and dealers from all over the world attended the sale at Berlin.

Mr. Keppel bought an impression of Rembrandt's Christ before Pilate, entitled the "Great Ecce Homo," paying 1,400 marks, or $350, for the etching. Just after the sale a well dressed gentleman said in French to Mr. Keppel:

"Sir, I presume you are a stranger in Berlin. I am a native of the city, and I am mortified to see you so badly cheated today. I wish to make you all the restitution I can. You paid 1,400 marks for that etching. The price is far too high, but to compensate you for your loss I will sell you a genuine etching for 1,000 marks."

Mr. Keppel knew his etching to be genuine. Mr. Keppel saw that the man was playing a game of high comedy, but he said he would like to see the etching. When Mr. Keppel reviewed the etching, he said:

"I will give you 5 marks for the etching." When the man found he had been caught in his game, he simply said:

"Prenez le," and Mr. Keppel took the counterfeit, which he afterward gave to the purchaser of his genuine etching. The counterfeit, which was made by Solomon Savry, can only be told from the original by the difference in the drawing of one of the hands in the etching.

The only difference between the original and the counterfeit of Albert Durer's celebrated etching "Melancholia" is the form of a ward on one of several keys hanging from a figure's girdle. Though smaller than a pinhead, the flaw represents a difference in price of several hundred dollars.—New York Sun.

"America's Greatest Men and Women."

AMERICA'S GREATEST MEN AND WOMEN.

MR. WILSON TALKS.

MY Name is Wilson; I do an insurance business on LaSalle street, in Chicago Ill., and I live in Evanston, Ill. Evanston is what was originally a scattering population on a pretty point on Lake Michigan, esteemed years ago far from the city of Chicago, but now one of the varied towns which may go within it by vote of the population.

I am married and have a wife and one child. That child is a boy (I suppose I should feel the same solicitude if it was a girl), and I have a father's natural fancies as to what must be the best thing to give that child the right kind of intelligence, and so divert his course that he may succeed in life. I have studied a great deal upon the subject. My own experience would not be of great value, because I have succeeded only to the limit of the average man and am barely established; still, I own the house and lot upon which I live, and am feeling perfectly safe in meeting the exigencies of the year. I want the boy to take a broader view than I did, to be a bigger man in the world. I have studied how to teach him to do that, and he has done pretty well, as far as the preliminaries go. Now, I have thought over what I should say to him and have sometimes been puzzled. I could not very well tell him what to do. I wanted to tell him what I needed but what I did not learn myself when I was of his age, and what my father did not know how to tell me, or else was not thoughtful enough to do so. I wanted to tell him how to follow the example of those who have succeeded at the present time and under the circumstances which ordinarily affect a young man struggling in this Republic established on this comparatively new world to-day. I wanted to tell him just what he had better do to get along well, and to point out to him what had been done by the people who were successful at the present time.

Of course, the record of the people of any time past would not be of so much value, because circumstances must necessarily have been different when they were alive. I feel confident, though, that if I could learn, some way and somehow, what the people who are so successful to-day have done and how they did it, I could give to my boy such advice as would make his own life at least as far removed from failure as justified by the natural ability he may possess,

I looked around for some authority which I might consult in order to give him the facts most essential with this idea of mine in mind, but I could find none until I discovered that a great publishing firm in Chicago had decided to bring out a book giving the photographs of all the people who are prominent in America to-day. Here was what I wanted. The book, as I have learned, is going to be published in 16 parts, 16 pages to each, with a recent photograph on each page of some active leading American man or woman of to-day, while underneath appears the story of that same person's life—the story telling what that person did, and how the ends attained were eventually accomplished. Here was what I wanted; here was what I needed in various ways; here was what I was certainly seeking in order to obtain the information with which to educate my boy and secure for him that knowledge which will give him a source of thought and make him prominent in the world.

I have the first sheets of this work. It is a graphic story of America's Greatest Men and Women, told in each instance on a single page underneath a photograph of recent date, which conveys to the eye an idea of what that person is. To me the photograph tells even more than the suggestive record beneath; and yet it is odd how in each instance the correct story corresponds with the expression upon the face which is reproduced in the portrait above. I do not know how the series will end. I know very little about this new feature of the newspaper people; I know nothing about the publishers and their expectations, but I do know this: that if the series so begun should be continued to its practical, ordinary good sense end—and I don't care whether that will include 200 or 700 of America's Greatest Men and Women, which is the title of the book—I do know this, that for the ordinary, active and alert business man—I will certainly say far more for the student or the literary man, or the politician or the statesman—for all these I will say it will be simply the most valuable and the most remarkable book produced in modern history The wonder is that some one has not thought of it before. Yet no one seems to have done so since the days of Plutarch. Plutarch knew something. That shrewd old fellow knew that all who would get out of the drift, all who would accomplish great things, wanted to know every detail of the lives of those who had better luck or more courage or a broader brain than their fellows; but I am no authority on these points. I only know that there is produced a second Plutarch's Lives, that its biographies are shrewd, graphic and curt, and written without bias and without prejudice. I only know that there was a Plutarch—God bless the old fellow—and that there is this modern work.

This is the work I am going to give to my boy. I am going to make him read it thoroughly. The work is announced as consisting of 16 Parts, with 16 pages and 16 photographs in each part, and when bound, the whole series will make a great volume of 256 pages, the like of which has never been equaled. It is the story of the personal character of the men and women who are making the nation's history at this particular time. What a work this is! Do you imagine that I would miss it for my boy, or, incidentally, for myself?

THE UPPER TEN THOUSAND.

Doings of the Dukes and Dukesses In the Aristocratic Circles of Great Britain.

In reference to some recent remarks here about the poor matrimonial results of the last London season it is learned that matchmaking parents are deriving much consolation from the almost phenomenal activity of what is known as the country house season. The weather has been bad for grouse shooting and other sport, compelling the young men to spend more time than usual indoors in the society of the ladies. The gratifying result is said to be the engagement of about 200 fashionable girls to an equal number of fashionable young men since the parliamentary recess commenced. The bridegrooms include some half dozen of the eldest sons of peers, among them the Marquis of Hamilton, the heir of the Duke of Abercorn, who will marry the daughter of the Earl of Lucan.

There is also one divorced man, Lord Connemara, who caused a grave scandal when governor of Madras. He is to marry a widow, Mrs. Coleman, and polite society is asking what priest or parson will have the courage to perform the ceremony.

When Lord Bruce took over the titles, honors and estates of the marquisate of Ailesbury on the death of his childless nephew, "the Coster Marquis," he found many valuable heirlooms missing. Thereupon he spent money lavishly in advertising and employed several detectives. The result is now announced. Most of the property has been traced. The heirlooms are in the hands of various people, including pawnbrokers, collectors and disreputable women. The late marquis, it seems, had treated them as available assets and distributed them freely among his friends and hangers on, male and female, the majority of whom pledged or sold them speedily for cash. Some of the present possessors have readily agreed to return the treasures on reasonable terms. Others have put fancy prices upon them, and a few have refused to part with them on any consideration. Lawsuits will therefore be necessary, and the recalcitrant holders will have to prove how they obtained the heirlooms, what they paid for them, and also show that the purchases were made in the open market. Their stories promise to be extremely interesting.—London Letter in New York Sun.

HIS HORSE TO HIS SWEETHEART.

The Request of a Young Trooper Whom His Comrades Found Dying.

On the steamer City of Puebla, which arrived from the sound the other day, was a beautiful coal black horse on its way to Los Angeles. The horse belonged to Lieutenant Casey, who was stationed with his troop of cavalry at the Pine Ridge agency. He was a popular young officer and made friends wherever he went.

About five years ago he met a daughter of General C. O. Howard of Los Angeles, and before the lieutenant's leave of absence had expired the young couple were engaged to be married. Shortly after Lieutenant Casey joined his troop at Pine Ridge the Indians began to be troublesome, and finally a report that the savages had swooped down on a number of settlers and murdered them all reached the post. The young officer started off in all haste with his troop to head off the marauders, but they soon found themselves surrounded by the Indians. Lieutenant Casey rode his favorite horse that had been with him through many campaigns, and he was the first to fall with a mortal wound. As he fell from the saddle the horse stopped and stood guard over his almost lifeless body.

When friends came to his relief, he was near his death, and he requested that his faithful horse be sent to his fiancee.

A favorable opportunity was awaited to carry out the last wishes of the lieutenant, but changes were made in the personnel of the garrison, and the horse remained at the post. He had his usual place in the stable, but no one rode him. As time went on some of the officers who had been with Lieutenant Casey returned to the fort, and they were surprised that the horse was still there. At the first opportunity they sent the horse to the sound by rail, and from there it came by steamer on its way to Miss Howard.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mrs. Lease's Election Bet.

Mrs. Mary E. Lease is in Kansas City on important business—to have a dress fitted. Mrs. Lease said:

"The Populists will carry Kansas by about 30,000. Do you know it was a discussion upon this very subject that led me to make my first bet? Joe Hudson of the Topeka Capitol and myself were talking one day, and I said the Populists would win. Hudson differed. He had confidence in the Republicans and offered to bet a $50 dress against a $50 suit of clothes that the Republicans would win. I did not want to bet and said I was afraid. He laughed at me. I said I was not afraid I would lose, but that I had never made a bet and was a little timid. I finally took it, however, and the bet is duly recorded. The fall elections shall decide who shall wear the new clothes. He has one advantage. Fifty dollars will buy a splendid suit of clothes, but not an extra fine dress."—Kansas City Times.

Tesla's Experiments.

Nikola Tesla, the famous electrician, entertained the Electro-Therapeutic association Monday at his laboratory at 35 South Fifth avenue. He made a number of interesting experiments, in one of which his visitors received 7,000 volts of electricity without injury. This was followed by a current of 800,000 volts, during which the guests, who were in a darkened room, became illuminated and sparks flow from them and from the furniture with which they came in contact. No one experienced the slightest inconvenience.—New York Tribune.

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

WURTSBORO.

Old Pistols—Pension Examiner in Town—The Yankee Pond Dam—Wanted the Rabbit—Duck Shooting at Masten Lake—Other Notes of Interest from the Ready Pen of J. V. M,

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Capt. John Holmes, of Wurtsboro, has three ancient pistols. Two are smooth-bore flint locks. The other has a percussion cap lock and cut-rifle bore. They were all made in London. The smooth bores look old enough to have been used at Waterloo, in which battle friends of their original owner participated.

—Mr. and Mrs. John McCoy are stopping at P. McElroy's. Mr. McCoy is a government contractor.

—A pension examiner has been in town for the past week.

—Patrick McGuiness, aged 100, is failing slowly.

—Next Wednesday evening is Hallow E'en and cabbages left out of doors will suffer.

—Yankee Pond dam is the largest and strongest structure of its kind owned by the D. and H. Canal Company. The wall and embankment at the bottom are sixty feet thick.

—Squire Parsell's dog ran a rabbit under J. V. M.'s barn the other day. His Honor promptly served notice on Mr. Morrison to remove the barn, so that he might get the rabbit.

—One of our woodcock hunters killed six in half a day recently up the Townley brook. The birds are very scarce.

—The Otisville hounds are running foxes, daily, along the Shawangunk Mountains.

—James Cunningham is getting along finely as teacher of the school in the Rafferty district.

—William Stanton has made a success of teaching in the Gumaer district.

—Horses are cheap, and when canal navigation closes will be cheaper still.

—William Smith, of Brownville, sent me, last week, a branch of apple blossoms picked in his orchard.

—Fred Harding has a fine field of cabbage.

—Miss Lucinda Reed, who is nearly ninety years old, has just finished piecing another beautiful quilt.

—William Cunningham, who keeps over forty cows, has the largest dairy in this neighborhood.

—There are more minks in the valley than there have been in years.

—The repairs to the Canal Company's dam at Wolf Pond are nearly completed.

—Thomas Lennon expects a job on the Reformatory at Napanoch.

—Otto Henlie, our village barber, was for a time a prisoner at Andersonville.

—Hickory nuts are very scarce,—not a quarter of a crop.

—There are a great many wormy chestnuts, this year.

—The Keiffer pear is a success. Most people, however, pick them too early, for they ripen very late.

—The buckwheat crop in the valley is larger than usual, and very much better than was expected.

—But one deer has been killed east of the Neversink, this season.

—Coons are numerous, but good coon dogs are very scarce.

—Tom Many's dog, a Gordon setter, worth over $100, has been returned to him.

Getting Ready for Winter—Plowing for Spring Crops—Removals—Injured on a Barbed Wire Fence.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—C. Bunger is having the tramway leading from his creamery, near this place, repaired and fixed up for winter.

—Several of the farmers have commenced their Fall plowing, preparatory to the Spring crops.

—A. G. Welsh has moved into the rooms recently vacated by H. G. Everts, at the end of the iron bridge.

—Mrs. E. B. Hodge has removed her millinery store to the Townsend building, on River street.

—R. E. V. Barnhart's horses ran away, last Friday, while plowing and got 1 to a barbed wire fence, cutting one of them quite badly, so that the wounds had to be sewed up. It will be some time before the animal will be able to work.

—J. B. Oakley, formerly of this place, but at present of New Jersey, has been here for the past few days, calling on his friends in this vicinity.

THE STANDARD DICTIONARY.

After five years of labor, with the help of 247 editors, and the enormous expenditure of nearly one million dollars, the Funk & Wagnalls Company announce that the last page of the second, the concluding, volumn of the new Standard Dictionary, is now in type. This volume will be ready for delivery in November.

Was in the Wreck at Carr's Rock.

Camden C. Dike, of Brooklyn, who went down the embankment in the terrible accident at Carr's Rock, on the Erie's Delaware Division in 1868, and was one of the few who survived that terrible experience, died, Thursday in Brooklyn. Mr. Dike was badly hurt and received $35,000 in settlement of his claim for damages.

A Wife Murderer's Suicide.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 24.—At Falkville yesterday the body of Dr. William Turney, who has been missing for several days, was found in a small cottage in which he lived alone. The doors were locked securely and a half empty morphine bottle on the bed told the tale of suicide. Dr. Turney, who was a Methodist minister, 72 years of age, married a beautiful young woman, his third wife. One day he saw her talking to another man on the street, and when he came home he choked her to death. He was declared insane and sent to the state lunatic asylum. Six months ago he was pronounced cured and released from custody.

The Carlisle Indian School.

CARLISLE, Pa., Oct. 25.—Captain R. H. Pratt's fifteenth annual report of the Carlisle Indian school shows a successful year, with a material advance in all departments. In that time, only one death has occurred. There are now on farms 493 boys and 328 girls. No pupil of the school has ever been brought from a reservation by force. The present number of pupils is 602, of whom 358 are boys and 244 girls. The new pupils number 152, and 215 have been returned to agencies. Forty four tribes are now represented at the school.

Four Fishermen Drowned.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 25.—The fishing schooner Dora A. Lawson, which arrived yesterday from the banks, reports the loss of four of her crew. On Sept. 21 Frank Mullowney, aged 18, and John Dooley, aged 50, were drowned by the capsizing of an overloaded dory. Thomas Sullivan and Patrick Shea, of Boston, both about 25 years old, were drowned about Sept. 1, while off in a boat.

Death of a Naval Veteran.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 25.—Captain Robert B. Pagram, formerly in the United States and Confederate navies, died here yesterday, aged 83 years. He served on the Saratoga in the Mexican war under the then Captain David Glasgow Farragut in 1847, and he was in the expedition to Japan in 1852, and in 1855 commanded the American forces which united with the English in operating against pirates in Chinese waters, when thirty-one war junks were sunk by the Powhattan and sixteen pirates captured. For this service Pegram received the thanks of the British admiral, and the state of Virginia voted him a sword.

Tried to Poison Her Companions.

TRENTON, Oct. 25.—Lydia Overton, aged 18 years, has been held to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of attempting to poison Bessie Wood, aged 17 years, and two or three other girl companions. The other girls had been teasing Lydia, and in revenge she gave them candy containing croton oil. The condition of Bessie Wood was serious for a time, but the others were not affected to any extent. A warrant has been issued for the confectioner who made the candy.

A New Switchmen's Aid Society.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 25.—Switchmen now have a national organization. The successor to the old Switchmen's Mutual Aid association will be known as the Switchmen's Union of North America. The most important change is that section relating to benefits. The old organization paid $1,000 upon the death or total disability of a member. This feature has been dropped for the present, although weekly sick benefits will be paid members.

Schools Closed by Epidemic.

PHILLIPSBURG, Pa., Oct. 25.—The public schools, as well as the Sunday schools, in the town of Ramey, near Houtzdale, have been ordered closed, owing to the prevalence of diphtheria. A number of deaths have already occurred and new cases are daily reported.

Arkansas Whitecaps on Trial.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 25.—Twenty-five members of an alleged gang of whitecaps, who have been creating a reign of terror in St. Francis county, Ark., were placed on trial at Helena, Ark., yesterday. A jury was empaneled and three witnesses identified several of the defendants as members of a band who applied the torch to buildings on the plantation of Henry Banks and drove the tenants off the place. There are over a hundred witnesses to be examined, and the trial will continue several days.

Accidentally Killed His Brother.

LYONS, N. Y., Oct. 25.—John, Van and Samuel Westfall, three sons of J. R. Westfall, of Rochester, were shooting ducks from a boat on Great Sodus bay at Bris cow's cove. Seeing a duck flying low, John told Van to lower his head while he shot at the duck, missing it. Just as he was ready to discharge the other barrel Van, supposing John had discharged both barrels, raised his head, receiving the entire charge in his head, and dying instantly.

Amnesty for Brazilian Rebels.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The United States minister to Chile has advised the state department that the Chilean government has granted general amnesty to all persons accused of political offenses prior to Aug. 28, 1891. The effect of this amnesty is to pardon the adherents of ex President Balmaceda up to the day he was forced to resign, and does not extend to those who resisted the new government formed after Balmaceda's abdication.

A Cargo of Gunpowder Explodes.

ABERDEEN, Scotland, Oct. 25.—A dispatch received here from Peterhead, a seaport about twenty five miles from here announces that the Swedish schooner Alene, loaded with gunpowder, which was at anchor near Peterhead, has been blown up. It is added that within two minutes after the explosion nothing was to be seen on the surface of the water but splinters from the schooner. All her crew perished.

A Defeat for Tim Campbell.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Judge McAdam, in the supreme court yesterday, decided that John Simpson is the regular Republican candidate for congress in the Ninth (or Bowery) district. This is a defeat for Timothy J. Campbell, who was thrown overboard by Tammany, and then attempted to become the candidate of the Republicans.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 24.—An attempt was made to wreck the Big Four express near Benton Harbor. A post was driven three feet into the ground between the rails just below a curve on the down grade. The engineer stopped his train in time, and the crew, armed, stood guard while the obstructions were being removed. Robbery is supposed to have been the motive.

Choked His Opponent to Death.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Oct. 25.—Ras Shields was brought to this city and placed in jail on the charge of murder. Shields went into a restaurant at Montpelier yesterday and quarreled with the clerk, Frank Ditzler. He became enraged at something Ditzler said and choked him to death. Shields is a well known horse rider.

Killed While Returning from Work.

ASHLAND, Pa., Oct. 25.—Thomas Monaghan and Thomas Burke, while walking home from work last evening, were struck by a Lehigh Valley train near Raven Run. Monaghan was instantly killed and Burke so badly injured that he will die. Both men were married.

A Parricide Acquitted.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 25.—The trial of Van K. Pritchett, charged with the murder of his father, Clark Pritchett, on July 2 last, resulted in a verdict of acquittal. Pritchett shot his father while the latter was advancing in a threatening manner toward his mother.

A Monument to Ex-Governor Curtin.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Oct. 25.—The movement for a monument to ex-Governor Curtin is beginning to assume definite shape. The Grand Army has appointed a committee to look into the matter, and it is proposed to erect a $25,000 marble structure in the public square here surmounted by a statue of the war governor.

Relieved from an Irksome Marriage.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Marchioness of Queensberry has obtained a decree nullifying her marriage to the marquis. The marquis was married privately in November last to Miss Ethel Weeden at the register's office at East Bourne. She was his second wife.

Rutherford B. Hayes Wedded.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 25.—Rutherford B. Hayes, son of the ex-president, and Miss Lucy Platt, of this city, were married yesterday in Trinity Episcopal church by Rev. Dr. Jones, of Kenyon college. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes will reside here.

Epidemic of Typhoid Fever.

BEREA, Ky., Oct. 25.—Typhoid fever is raging with great severity here. At Union, Waco and other villages in the east end of this (Madison) county, ten deaths have occurred in the last six days, and new cases are reported almost daily.

Strauss' Illness Serious.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The Times says that Johann Strauss, the composer, who is suffering with a cold contracted during his recent jubilee fetes, is seriously ill.

Wrecked by Natural Gas.

MARION, Ind., Oct 25.—Larrimer Bro.'s photograph gallery in this city was completely wrecked last evening by an explosion of natural gas. Miss Grace Speakman, whose home is in New Castle, Ind., received fatal injuries. She was buried beneath the debris, and was unconscious when found, with her skull fractured and chest crushed. Ben Larrimer, proprietor of the gallery, and Alfred Greenman, an employe, were seriously burned and bruised.

Depew to the Bowery Boys.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Chauncey Depew is to make his first "Bowery" speech tonight. It is to be delivered at the Windsor theater, and will be the first time in his life that the great orator has spoken in the slum section of New York. Senator Hill will address a big labor meeting at Cooper union this evening.

To Escape the Income Tax Law.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 25.—Many of the Connecticut savings banks have given notice to depositors having more than $10,000 to draw down their deposits so as to relieve the banks from the operation of the income tax law.

A Bank President on Trial.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 25.—The trial of Frederick T. Day, president of the defunct Plankinton bank, charged with receiving a deposit after he had good reason to know the bank was insolvent, began today.

Condemned Murderer Liberated.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 25.—A number of friends of Bart Carter, who has been sentenced to be hanged Dec. 21 for the killing of Hunter Wilson, went to Mountain Home, Ark., and liberated him. They procured the keys of the jail from the sheriff's wife, whose husband was out of town, and had no trouble liberating Carter. He is still at large.

Murderous Mexicans Sentenced to Death.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 24.—Augustine Lopez and Macon Crase, the murderers of McSweeney and Hopps, the Americans murdered near Oaxaca, have been sentenced to death. The case of calumny against Barjas and his wife will now be tried by the federal district court, and this time against Romero.

Japan Again Rejects Mediation.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—It is stated that Japan has again rejected the mediation of a foreign power in her dispute with China, while the latter country has expressed her readiness to accept an armistice, or any reasonable condition.

Two Killed by Falling Coal.

ASHLAND, Pa., Oct. 25.—Adam Nedinsky, aged 31 years, and his helper, Charles Urbin, aged 25 years, were killed by a fall of coal in the Gilberton mine.

The Washington Post very truthfully remarks that "Gov. McKinley's calamity sentences are badly choked by the smoke from the resuming factories."

It is evident to even the dullest comprehension that the Democratic party in this State is a great many thousand votes stronger than it was when the State ticket was nominated at Saratoga.

DaveMartin, of Philadelphia, organizer of gangs of colonizers and repeaters, who was driven out of New York in 1892, is again at Republican headquarters. The New York Grand Jury, yesterday, found 100 indictments for illegal registration. A plain case of cause and effect.

Mr. Charles M. Vail, of Goshen, who is one of the most prominent members of the New York Produce Exchange, was one of the Vice-Presidents of the great meeting held in New York, last night, under the auspices of the business men of the city, at which Senator Hill delivered one of his rousing speeches.

Attorney General Hancock has given an opinion that the local authorities have no power to designate when the polls shall be opened. Outside of New York city where the hours are from 6 a. m. to 4 p. m. the polls must be opened at sunrise and closed at sunset. With as many ballots as there are to be handled, this fall, all the time that the law gives will be needed to poll the vote in large districts.

In the interest of harmony the Shepardites have withdrawn Daniel Walsh, their candidate for Congress in one of the Brooklyn districts, and announce that they are willing to withdraw another candidate, John L. Nostrand in the Fifth District. The efforts of Senators Hill and Faulkner to secure union on Democratic candidates in the New York city districts were without avail, none of the candidates being willing to withdraw.

The voters of Orange county will not forget, this fall, last winter's scheme to raise the salaries of County Judge and Surrogate and Judge Beattie's part in it. A bill doubling the salary of the County Judge and largely increasing that of the Surrogate was rushed through the Assembly by Mr. Thornton, and was well on its way through the Senate before the people of the county learned of what was going on. Times were hard and taxes high, and the farmers, working men and owners of little homes felt that it was no time to increase the salaries of county officers who were already amply paid for all the duties they were called on to perform. They sent to Albany such indignant protests against the proposed increase of salaries that the backers of the bill were frightened and the measure was allowed to die.

Judge Beattie, a prospective beneficiary of the increased salary of the County Judge, had to go on record as in favor of the scheme, and he went so far as to say that $3,000 was only fair compensation for the work the County Judge had to perform. To be consistent he had to say that unless the salary could be $3,000 he did not want the office for another term. He held to this position until a week before the Republican nominations were made. Then he announced that he had reconsidered his determination, and if the people were willing would take the job again on the old terms.

If Judge Beattie is re elected what guarantee have the people of Orange county that, this year or next year or some other year during his six years' term of office, the increase of salary scheme will not be revived and pushed through in spite of popular protest and indignation? It is openly talked that the scheme is only in abeyance, and that the Republican bosses, who for reasons of locality and party expediency were anxious to have Judge Beattie on the ticket have pledged themselves to put the salary bill through.

John C. R. Taylor, the Democratic candidate for County Judge, believes that $1,500 is ample compensation for the County Judge of Orange county. If elected he will not seek to have the salary raised, nor will he growl and sulk because it is not twice as large as it now is. He is a good lawyer, and in every way competent to discharge every duty of the office. Vote for him.

A CRANK AFTER CLEVELAND.

The Man Who Challenged Emperor William to a Duel Insists on Seeing the President.

BY UNITED PRESS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24—A crank named Goerdeler called, to-day, at the residence of Dr. Bryant, where President Cleveland is stopping and demanded in a noisy way to see the President.

The butler told him the President couldn't be seen, but he persisted, and Dr. Bryant, who was summoned, finally persuaded the crank to leave.

Goerdeler is the man who, some years ago, wrote to the Emporer William, challenging him to fight a duel.

Dr. Bryant said the President would leave for Washington, this afternoon.

LIVE LOCAL TOPICS.

—Democratic meeting, to-night, at the Assembly Rooms.

—The Downsville Presbyterian Church celebrated its sixty-ninth anniversary, Sunday.

—Archbishop Corrigan confirmed, Tuesday, a class of 103 boys and girls in St. Joseph's Church, Kingston,

—You will hear two good speeches if you attend the Democratic meeting at the Assembly Rooms, to-night.

—At the Sunday morning service the Norwich Baptist Church raised $3,000 for repairs and improvements to the church edifice.

—Twenty-five new sewing machines were placed in Fuller's shirt factory in Kingston, this week, making 155 in all. The factory now employs 140 girls.

—The inventory of the assets of Rhinehart & Terwilliger, the Bruynswyck, Ulster county merchants, who recently assigned, shows that the estate amounts to $1,900.

—The New York Condensed Milk Company has purchased additional land at Wassaic, Dutchess county, and proposes to soon enlarge its buildings at that place.

—The Port Jervis free library, which was closed when small-pox first broke out in that village, has been reopened.

—On account of Senator Hill's speech at Port Jervis, Oct. 31st., the Erie will sell excursion tickets, good for that day only, for eighty-five cents for the round trip.

—The season for fish stories ends well. The Hammondsport Herald tells of the capture of a veteran black bass, which had long baffled fishermen, which was too full of fish hooks to be eaten and had to be sold for old iron.

—Go to the Democratic meeting at the Assembly Rooms, to-night, and see and hear Hon. Eugene S. Ives, that you may know what kind of a man the Democrats of the Seventeenth District propose to send to Congress.

—Port Jervis Hose Co., No. 4, sent, last night, to Ward Hose Company, of Deposit, handsomely engrossed and framed resolutions acknowledging the hospitality of Ward Hose on the occasion of the Deposit fire parade in 1893.

—Mr. William F. O'Neill always makes a good political speech, one that is well worth hearing. Hon. Eugene S. Ives is also a most effective speaker. You can hear them both at the Democratic meeting at the Assembly Rooms, to-night.

—The Ladies Auxiliary of the B. of L. E. will give a social and supper in its rooms, corner of East Main street and Railroad avenue, on Friday evening, Oct. 26th. Tickets including supper 25 cents. There will also be dancing.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. Thomas Dugan and son Robert returned, yesterday, from a visit to Mr. Dugan, at Reading, Pa.

OBITUARY.

Ira Smith Bradner, M. D.

Dr. Ira S. Bradner died at 10:30 o'clock, last night, of heart disease and general debility, aged seventy-four years, four months and twenty-two days. He had been in failing health for some time and became noticeably worse in the early part of this week. He was forced to take to his bed, on Tuesday, but would not remain there. He grew steadily weaker as the hours passed and the end came last night, as above stated.

Dr. Bradner was born in the town of Goshen in 1820. He was educated at the Farmers' Hall Academy, in Goshen, and at Princeton College, from which he graduated in 1840. He studied medicine with Dr. J. W. Ostrom, of Goshen, and graduated from the Medical Department of the University of New York in 1843. He began the practice of his profession at Scotchtown, and remained there until 1857, when he removed to this city.

Although trained in the old school of practice Dr. Bradner became interested, in 1850, in the study of the theories of Hahnemann, and continuing his investigations he became so impressed with the teachings of the Great Master of Homeopathy, that he made up his mind to adopt that form of practice, and resigning from the Orange County Medical Society, he, in company with a number of other physicians who had also become converts to homeopathy, organized the Orange County Homeopathic Medical Society. He was elected Secretary and Treasurer of the society, a position which he held for very many years.

In 1863 he was appointed assistant surgeon of the 56th Regiment, N. Y. V., Col. Van Wyck's Tenth Legion, with the rank of major. He was in the service until the close of the war and was on duty for two years and seven months on Sea Island.

Dr. Bradner was married Oct. 5th, 1843, to Sarah Jane, daughter of John G. and Susan Bronson Houston, of Scotchtown, who survives him. Seven children were born to them, of whom Thomas and William died in infancy and Dr. Fred H., fourteen years ago. The survivors are Dr. Julia E. Bradner, Mrs. Susan F. Hathaway, Recorder John Fremont Bradner and Miss Isabel G. Bradner, all of this city.

Dr. Bradner was a careful studious physician, who enjoyed in the fullest degree the confidence of his patients. When in his prime he commanded a very large practice and was often called in consultation by homeopathic physicians in other places who had implicit faith in his professional skill. He was a good husband and kind father and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew him. He was for many years a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

The funeral will be from his late residence, Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock and will be private. Friends who desire to the body may call at the house between 9 and 11 o'clock, that morning.

Oliver W. Fitzgerald.

Word was received in this city, today, of the death in Binghamton, yesterday, of Oliver W. Fitzgerald, after an illness of two years, with consumption.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter of Cornelius Gillespie, of 84 East Main street, this city, and two children, Maggie, aged seven years, and Oliver, aged three years. He is also survived by a brother, who lives in Warwick, and by his sisters, Mary, wife of Henry Dow, of Warwick, and Cornelia, wife of Isaac Parkers, of Oxford.

This is the fourth death that has occurred in the family in less than three years.

The interment was at Binghamton.

HYMENEAL.

Brittain—Tyler.

Rev. Theron Brittain, pastor of the Ridgebury Presbyterian Church, was married, yesterday morning, to Miss Lole F. Tyler, of Damascus, Pa., by Rev. Otto R. W. Klose, pastor of the Cochecton Presbyterian Church.

Borland-Miller.

Mr. J. C. Borland, of Tuxedo, formerly of this city, and Miss Myrtie Miller, daughter of Mr. Jacob Miller, of Knapp avenue, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, yesterday afternoon, by Rev. Dr. Darwood, of St. Paul's Church.

MEETING OF PRESBYTERY.

A Special Meeting to Be Held in This City, Nov. 5th.

A special meeting of the Presbytery of Hudson will be held in the Second Presbyterian Church, this city, Monday, Nov. 5th, at 1:30 p. m., for the purpose of acting on the release of Rev. Henry Hansman from the pastorate of the German Church at Jeffersonville, Sullivan county. A call of the Scotchtown Church to the Rev. Mr. Lynn, of Pottsville, Pa., may be considered at the meeting.

Democratic Meeting

AT

ASSEMBLY ROOMS,

MIDDLETOWN.

This Evening,

TO BE ADDRESSED BY

Hon. Eugene S. Ives,

Candidate for Representative in Congress, and

WILLIAM F. O'NEILL, ESQ.,

Democrats, Republicans, Prohibitionists and Populists all welcome.

THE HOSPITAL FAIR.

Small Attendance, Last Night, on Account of the Storm—Living Pictures.

The fair for the benefit of Thrall Hospital was opened at the Casino, yesterday afternoon. The attendance was not as large as was expected, owing to the stormy weather. Dancing to the music of Steven's orchestra was indulged in until eleven o'clock. The booths were all well patronized and many of the fancy articles were quickly disposed of.

The most popular articles on which chances were sold were the boat and fishing rod.

To-night, after 6 o'clock, a fine supper—salads, cold meats, etc., etc., will be served.

Friday evening, an oyster supper will be served. Ice cream on sale in the banquet hall, at all times during the fair.

An error in the fair programme, credited one of the crockery stores with the presentation of a set of china to the domestic booth. The set of china was presented by the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

Owing to the death of Dr. Ira S Bradner, his grandson, Mr. Odell Hathaway, will be unable to take part in the farce, "Who's to Win Him," which was to have been produced at the Casino, Saturday evening. The other ladies and gentlemen who were in the cast have, therefore, decided to postpone the production until some future date, when they will give a performance for the benefit of the hospital fund.

THOSE LIVING PICTURES TO NIGHT.

To-night will be devoted to Mrs. Stewart's picture gallery, which she kindly promised to exhibit during the course of the evening. A great many have never seen pictures like hers. Extensive preparations have been made to make these pictures a great success. Certainly they are novel. You will want to see how many of these pictures you can recognize in every day life; you probably know the most of them.

But that will not be all. Music and recitations are promised, and of a high order; of the kind worth anybody's while listening to.

And should you not care for art, nor music, nor recitations, perchance you might be attracted by the booths around. They are handsome and handsomely garrisoned, you'll admit. The young ladies will be delighted to make change for you.

PUBLIC VOICE.

Card of Thanks from City Pastors.

EDITORS ARGUS: Whereas every minister of the gospel in his pastoral visitations is absolutely at the mercy of any designing or evil minded woman, we want to publicly thank you for the honorable course you have pursued in refusing to publish the unpleasant rumors connected with St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church.

KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

Sad Accident to a Young Man Well Known in This City.

While John, Van and Samuel Westfall, brothers, of Newark, N. Y., were hunting ducks, yesterday, on Great Sodus Bay, Van was accidentally killed by the discharge of a gun in the hands of John.

The Westfall brothers were well known in this city, having visited John L. Wiggins, Esq., on several occasions. They attended several Bachelors' hops and made many pleasant acquaintances.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

The Tennyson Recital—A Building Contract—Improvements—A Steam Laundry—Democratic Unity.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—The sale of tickets for the recital of Tennyson's beautiful Idyl of Lancelot and Elaine has commenced and the demand for seats is quite lively. Lucia Maud Priest, the characteriser, will be assisted by an orchestra of soloists who are all artists in the musical line.

—W. C. Altman has the contract for the mason work for the new house, which is being built by Mrs. Sweezy, on Grand street.

—W. D. Van Vliet commenced, today, to make extensive alterations in his furniture store on West Main street.

—It is said Goshen will soon have a steam laundry of her own. It will be located in the Drake block on West Main street.

—The Democrats in this village are all pulling together. They have laid all differences aside and will all work unitedly for the success of the whole ticket. A campaign club was organized, last night, and over 100 members signed the roll.

BAD WRECK ON THE O. AND W.

Two Sections of a Parted Coal Train Crash Together, Smashing Many Cars

An extra south bound O. and W. freight train, engine No. 163, Engineer Dunham, Conductor Covey, left Apex at 11:30, last night, for Hancock Junction with sixty-five cars. The train parted and ran together one-half mile north of Kerry's switch, wrecking twenty-three empties, some of them badly. Wreckers were started from Norwich, Hancock Junction and Middletown as soon as possible and they expected to get trains moving by noon, to day.

Passengers from trains 5 and 6 were transferred, causing a delay of four hours to No. 5 and one hour and twenty minutes to No. 6.

NEW YORK MILITIAMEN IN TOWN.

Seven Members of the Seventh Regiment Shooting on the 24th's Range

A squad of men from Company E., Seventh Regiment, visited this city, to-day, for the purpose of shooting on the 24th's outdoor range. The season has closed at Creedmoor and the company has qualified forty-two shapshooters. As men are not allowed to shoot for qualification except upon days designated from brigade headquarters, the captain of the company hearing that Capt. McIntyre had secured this extra day, sent his men here to shoot. There men were Sergeant White, Coporals Bernard and Johnson, Privates Meeker and Hiss and three others.

BOARD OF EXCISE.

A License Transferred, and a License Granted.

ESTABLISHING HER IDENTITY.

He Heard Her to the End and It Satisfied Him.

"I have no doubt, madam," said the cashier, "that you are Mrs. Jykes, the person named on this draft, but the rules of the bank require that you must be identified by some one known to us before I can cash the paper for you."

"I suppose I could go and hunt up some acquaintance," replied the lady, "but I took it for granted you were sufficiently familiar with my face to make such a formality unnecessary. It has been in the public prints often enough. I am known to you by name, I presume, as a public speaker and lecturer on social and political sub"—

"I repeat, madam, that, so far as I am personally concerned, I have no doubt you are Mrs. Jykes, the well known public speaker, but in business matters, as you must be aware, a banking house must be guided by established business prin"—

"When business principles are contrary to established rules of common sense," interrupted the caller impatiently, "what is the use of being guided by them? Bank drafts are drawn, sir, to facilitate the transaction of business. The theory is that banks are organized to serve as a means of promoting the rapid interchange of commodities, or, rather, the converting of commodities into the circulating medium of the country, to the end that toil may meet its due reward without undue delay, but banks, sir, are conducted for the real purpose of enriching their proprietors. They are swift to take money in and slow to pay it out. They form but another link in the chain with which plutocracy is fettering the limbs of labor, another spadeful of earth on the mountain that crushes down into the ground the common people! Banks, sir, are simply a part of the scheme through the operation of which the rich are growing richer and the poor are growing poorer. The monopolists control the means of exchange and dictate to the workers the terms on which the workers may live. Like a hideous vampire, the money power fattens on the lifeblood of the people and"—

The Boy Knew.

The hands of the clock pointed to 3:45, and school would not be dismissed until 4, so the schoolma'am, who was a strict moralist, thought she would give the young ideas a short lecture on goodness and morality. After explaining to the little folks the various grades of punishment for infractions of the law she resolved to ask a few questions to ascertain if her words had been comprehended.

"Now, children," said she, "I've told you what becomes of bad men and how good men get bad by loitering about saloons and associating with bad men. Now let me see how many of you have profited by my talk. I wish some of you to tell me where your papas hope to go."

Nobody answered. It was plain the schoolma'am was in too deep water for the youngsters. She seemed to think so, too, so she said:

"I'll make that a little easier. Tell me where your papas don't want to go (expecting such answers as prison, penitentiary and jail)?"

There was a painful wait, but finally a little fellow in one of the rear seats slowly raised his hand.

"Ah, there's one boy that can answer that question! Tell us, Tommy, where your papa doesn't want to go."

"To church," replied Tommy. "He says so every Sunday morning."

Whereupon school was dismissed.—Truth.

Of What Use.

Very absurd are the exclamations sometimes made by people from whose sails the wind has been temporarily taken, and we are often obliged to laugh while we mentally excuse the speaker by thinking that he "doesn't mean half he says." The following anecdote, from "Glimpses of the Nation's Struggle," is thus to be enjoyed—with a grain of salt:

Stringent orders had been issued in regard to foraging. The products of the country would be drawn upon along the march by regularly organized parties of men under responsible officers, who were to give receipts for everything appropriated, the accounts to be afterward adjusted by the proper persons in authority.

One morning during a halt a tall, brawny soldier approached an officer and asked.

"Lieutenant, what is this order about foraging? Can't a man forage?"

"No, orders forbid private foraging."

"Well, lieutenant, can't I go into a house and help myself?"

"No."

"Can't I even take a chicken?"

"No."

"Can't I take anything?"

"No."

"Well, then," he exclaimed, with an expression of intense disgust, "I wish somebody would tell me the use in being a soldier!"—Youth's Companion.

Discord.

"Help, help!" cried the albino, with wildly staring eyes.

The candy butcher aroused himself with an effort.

"What is the matter?" he asked, considerately diverting a poor, ignorant fly from its purpose of partaking of his wares.

"The two headed girl."

"Well?"

"Each head has just discovered that the other has a fall hat trimmed just like its own, and the language is something dreadful."—Detroit Tribune.

Messrs. DOLIBER, GOODALE & CO.

I have used Mellin's Food for my baby, and think it is splendid. He did not grow at all till I began the use of it. He will soon be 8 months, and is just cutting his first teeth, and had some trouble, but I got a bottle of the Food, and it has regulated him nicely.

Respectfully, Mrs. IONE M. SHEFF.

ANNUAL MEETING

OF

The Board of Supervisors.

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, ORANGE COUNTY. GOSHEN, N. Y.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Orange county will be held in their rooms in the county building, at Goshen, on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER the 14TH, at 2 o'clock p. m.

All persons having bills or claims of any description against said county are hereby notified and required to deposit the same, properly made out, itemized and verified according to law, in a receptacle provided for that purpose, in the Orange County Clerk's office, on or before the third day of such meeting. In default, thereof, such bills or claims will not be audited at said annual meeting.

In order to secure the proper distribution of drafts for bills audited, claimants are required to endorse on their bills the name of the town in which they reside and their post-office address.

Bills presented by Justices or Constables for services in criminal proceedings, must state fully the nature of the crime committed by the person or persons apprehended or tried, so as to distinguish between felonies and misdemeanors.

Constables or any other officer making any charge for mileage shall state in their bills the points traveled to and from, together with the actual number of miles traveled. No bills for mileage can be allowed that are not so itemized.

TuThSatNov14 INGHAM STUBLEY, Clerk.

STOLEN PROPERTY CLAIMED.

The Horse and Buggy Sold in This City by John Alspach Identified and Taken Away by Its Owners—The Property of Liverymen in Bethlehem, Pa.

Mr. Bachman, of the firm of Bachman & Ritter, of Bethlehem, Pa., arrived in this city, last evening, in response to Capt. Grier's telegram concerning the stolen rig, an account of which appeared exclusively in last night's ARGUS.

This morning he visited the livery stable and without hesitation picked his horse from the many horses in the stalls of the stable and also his wagon from a number of vehicles which were in the carriage room.

He presented Capt. Grier's letter as his credentials and the Captain wired the firm at Bethlehem to know if the man was all right. Upon receiving an affirmative answer, the property was delivered to him upon the payment of the reward of $50, which was offered for the recovery of the rig.

The rig was shipped to Bethlehem via the Erie and Lehigh and Hudson River roads, to-day.

The thief, for such Alspach turns out to be, told his yarn about his sister and the mill when he hired the rig from Messrs. Bachman & Ritter. He had spent several days at the hotel, and said when he hired the rig that in all probability he would be away two days, perhaps three. When he did not return at the time specified, postal cards were issued offering the reward.

The thief drove from Bethlehem to this city in two days, leaving there on Thursday and reaching here Saturday afternoon.

It is not known where he went from here.

OLD FOLKS' DAY.

Postponed on Account of the Storm—Meeting of the Crane Mission Circle.

On account of the storm, to-day, the reception for the "old folks" at the First Congregational Church is postponed until, to-morrow afternoon.

The meeting of the Crane Mission appointed for to-morrow at the residence of Mrs. R. H. Ayres will be held instead at the parlor of the church at 3 o'clock. A cordial welcome will be given by the ladies of this society to any of the "old folks" who may wish to attend their brief exercises. The social re-union will be held till supper is served at about 5 o'clock. All the elderly people of the congregation are invited to attend this annual gathering if possible.

ELECTRIC RAILROAD NOTES.

Work on the New Car House Begun—A Closed Car on the Asylum Line—The New Cars.

—The Traction Company has commenced the foundation of its new car building at the power house. The roof will be of iron, the contract having been awarded to the Berlin Iron Bridge Company, yesterday.

—Hereafter one of the closed cars will run on the Asylum route until the arrival of the new cars.

—Capt. Rockwell has kept the wires hot between this city and St. Louis inquiring about the cars which the makers promised to deliver in this city, Oct. 1st. The delay is very [illegible] to the company, but more so to the passengers who ride in the open cars in wet weather.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease Hood's Sarsaparilla is a constitutional remedy. It cures catarrh. Give it a trial.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." ORDINATION COUNCIL AT UNIONVILLE

Mr. William J. Morey Ordained as Pastor of the Orange Baptist Church—Interesting and Impressive Exercises

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

On Thursday, Oct 18th, a council was held in the Orange Baptist Church, at Unionville, to take into consideration the propriety of setting apart to the work of the gospel ministry the pastor-elect William J. Morey.

The council was called to order by the Clerk of the Church, Joshua Case, Jr., and Rev. C. C. Lathrop, of Deckertown, was chosen Moderator, and Rev. Ezra Sanford, of Cornwall, Clerk. The following were the delegates in attendance:

Port Jervis—Rev. S. Washington.
Middletown—Rev. Frank A. Heath, David E. Lain.
Warwick—Rev. W. E. Foote, D. D. Post.
Cornwall—Rev. Ezra Sanford.
Deckertown—Rev. C. C. Lathrop, Jacob V. Little.
Unionville—Joshua Case, Jr., L. L. Lain.

The Clerk of the Unionville church read the call for the council, the call of the church to the pastor-elect and the records of the church, as to his reception into the membership of the church. Mr. Morey then related his Christian experience, doctrinal views and call to the ministry. After a thorough examination the candidate withdrew and the council voted unanimously that his Christian experience and doctrinal views, and call to the ministry were entirely satisfactory and recommended his ordination to the work of the gospel ministry.

The Moderator appointed Rev. S. Washington, Joshua Case, Jr., and the candidate a committee on an order of service for the public services in the afternoon.

The committee made a report which was accepted and carried out to the letter in the afternoon before an appreciative audience.

Dinner was served in the lecture room by the ladies of the church and it was a feast.

The public exercises were held at 1:30 p. m., and were opened by the choir singing very earnestly, "To the Work." This was followed by reading of the scriptures and prayer, by Rev. Frank Heath, of Middletown. The ordination services, as recommended by the committee, were carried out as follows:

Sermon—Rev. W. E. Foote.
Ordination Prayer—Rev. C. C. Lathrop.
Hand of Fellowship—Rev. Frank A. Heath.
Charge to Candidate—Rev. Ezra Sanford.
Charge to the Church—Rev. S. Washington.
Address of Welcome—Rev. W. M. Yeamans, pastor of the Unionville Presbyterian Church,
Benediction by the candidate.

The exercises were interspersed by singing by the choir. Mrs. W. J. Morey rendered a solo very acceptably.

At the close of the services supper was served in the lecture room.

The attendance was large and the exercises interesting and impressive throughout.

STONY FORD.

At the Fire Parade—A Successful Hunter — Milk Shipments — Franklin Square's Pretty School Maams—Other Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—James McDonald and wife, of Lincondale, called here on Sunday.

—Sam Dusenberry is agent for a road cart made at Lansing, Mich.

—Weekly prayer meeting is held at Kaisertown, Sunday evenings at 7:30.

—Stony Ford was well represented at the fire parade in Newburgh, last week, a half dozen of our society leaders being present.

—Jimmie Ellis had a calf, but the calf was too slow for him so it was traded for a bicycle which Jimmie rides to and from school.

—Fritz Fiermann, a young German, lives alone in a cabin in the woods near Thomas Helmes. Not alone, either, for he has six dogs and half as many cats, and it's a poor day for game when the dogs don't bring him in a coon, woodchuck, rabbit or squirrel. Fritz was out with his fox hound, Monday, and shot a fine red fox. This goes on record as the first fox for the fall of '94.

—About forty cans of milk is the daily shipment from the creamery.

—One of our three-year-old youngsters was told not to pick up a cat as the cat was sick, to which the child inquired: "If the cat is sick, where did the cat throw up."

—The following young ladies whose homes were in Franklin Square are teaching school: Miss Satie Shafer, at Franklin Square; Miss Tura M. McMonagle, Collaburgh; Miss Bessie Thompson, Kaisertown; Miss Jennie Van Fleet, Millsburgh, Stony Ford has always been noted for her handsome and accomplished female teachers, but they are not with us long as all wed young and they make good wives too.

—James Barrett's owl, Bob, formerly lived at this place. Notice how wise the owl looks.

—T. C. Wilkin has finished threshing for the season and put his engine and cleaner in winter quarters.

THE CRAYON PICTURE SWINDLE.

An Alleged Agent for an Ellenville Firm Victimizes Pine Bush People.

A Pine Bush correspondent writes that a man went through that village not long ago, representing himself as an agent for an Ellenville photographer and soliciting orders for crayon pictures, which he offered to furnish at very low rates. He collected part payment in advance and has not been heard from since. It is assumed that he is the same party who worked a similar swindle in Chester, where he represented himself to be the agent of a Goshen photographer.

MAKE

Is one of the greatest differences in ready-made clothing. Some clothiers buy such poorly made and ill fitting clothing, that the cloth is worth more before it is cut up than after being made

We Manufacture All Our Clothing

and, therefore, cut the cheap clothing just as stylish and with as much care as the better grades. Our finer goods are made up better than the cheaper grades in some respects, but the cheaper clothing is made up with but one end in view—SERVICE

EVERY DOLLAR

you pay us for clothes represents so much value. If you buy a $4 suit or overcoat of us, it has got to give you that much value or we give you a new one. If you add a dollar to the four dollars and buy a $5 suit or overcoat, you get a dollar's worth more value. If you double your "V," and buy a $10 suit or overcoat you'll get one that's worth exactly twice as much as the $5 one, and you'll save $3 by buying it of us, as that is the amount which represents the middleman's profit. If you want to make your dollars count

Buy of the Manufacturer, and save these $3 yourself.

"It is Well Enough to Look Around and more satisfactory, perhaps," as a lady customer said in our presence, "yet I could have saved two or three hours' time by making my purchase the first time at your place." Well! We are willing to stake our reputation that there is not a CARPET HOUSE in the country that will offer, for the same amount of money, any part of their stock of Carpets, Linoleums, Oil Cloths, Art Squares, Mats, Mattings Trunks, Window Shades, Traveling Bags, Felts, as you will find for the remainder of the year at
